A word from our Superintendent

MISSIONS: It's what we do. We are the Assemblies of God.

The Missional Church moves from a consumer mindset to a missional mindset. Consumer mindset churches are places that dispense religious goods and services. People come for their weekly fix, or worse, out of habit. It's a church where people conceptualize, "I go to church." The missional mindset church is place where people explore and rediscover what it means to be Jesus' sent people as their identity and vocation - being disciples and making disciples. It's where people conceptualize, "We are the church."

I'M VERY PROUD OF KMN CHURCHES

Rev. Terry Crigger
KMN ASST. SUPERINTENDENT

tcigger@christschapel.net

A 2 Corinthians 8:1-7
"And now, brothers and sisters, we want you to know about the grace that God has given the Macedonian churches. In a very severe trial, their overflowing joy and their extreme poverty welled up in rich generosity. For I testify that they gave as much as they were able, and even beyond their ability. Entirely on their own, they urgently pleaded with us for the privilege of sharing in this service to the Lord's people. And they exceeded our expectations: They gave themselves first to the Lord, and then by the will of God also to us. We urged Titus, just as he had earlier made a beginning, to bring also to completion this act of grace on your part. But since you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in complete earnestness and in the love, we have kindled in you — see that you also excel in this grace of giving."

This biblical testimony of the Macedonian churches reminds me of the KMN this past year. With the outbreak of tornados in December 2021 that devastated communities in Western Kentucky, and the floods in Eastern Kentucky just a few months ago, our churches have responded with tremendous generosity. This allows our network to invest thousands of dollars into churches and communities with rapid intentionality. Thank you for time and time again reaching into mission accounts, benevolent monies, and asking members of your congregation to often give 'beyond their ability' so that others would benefit and be blessed.

Over the years I've seen this similar spirit exemplified for missionaries traveling to churches raising funds for budgets, and special projects that emerge on the field.

I witness it in church planting endeavors and renovations opportunities when other funds are depleted, and the window of opportunity is rapidly closing. In small and larger congregations, and in the heart of our network leadership, generosity is the bridge that unites us and reminds us of who we are and why we exist. Missions is the heartbeat of God and money accelerates our effectiveness both on the local level and in nations around the world.

I am very proud of our KMN churches. Not in an arrogant way, gloating or applauding what we have done. But with deep appreciation for the opportunity to participate as instruments of grace and compassion. In a world where takers often outnumber givers in large quantity, out of extreme suffering that continues to this day, let us continue to remember those that are impacted and others that depend on funding to fulfill their part of the Great Commission.

'God, continue to meet the needs of the suffering and struggling. And bless our Kentucky churches as they excel in the grace of giving and example rich generosity. Amen.'

By the grace of God,

Terry Crigger

BOTH IS THE RIGHT ANSWER

Rev. Darren Lewis
KMN SECRETARY/TREASURER

dlewis@kyag.org

The message of the Gospel can be found in many places. We look to Acts 1:8, Matthew 28:19–20, and others. These verses expressly command us to preach the Gospel to the ends of the earth. God has always focused on the nations, which is another way of saying missions.

Abram and Sari were changed to Abraham and Sarah because God says they would be the father and mother of many nations or multitudes. Genesis 22:18 states, “And through your descendants, all the nations of the earth will be blessed—all because you have obeyed me.” (NLT) Followers of Christ understand this to be directly related to His work on the cross.

We cannot separate missions from the Word of God. As such, we cannot separate it from the life of the believer. The Bible is full of missionary references from beginning to end. Every follower of Christ is left with a question: Will I send, or will I go? Those are the only options. At least most people think so. In a real sense, we can and should fulfill both options. We can give and work to send others overseas, and we are called to go to our neighbor.

It is easy to fall into the trap of fulfilling one’s duty because we wrote a check or donated via text. Does this action release us from the imperative to “go and make disciples”? If I send $100 per month to a missionary in the Philippines, am I no longer expected to tell my neighbor about Jesus?

Certainly not. Most understand missions in the context of overseas. While that is a vital part of the Biblical mandate, we must also realize that those around us also need Jesus. Think of the church in Macedonia. As poor as they were, they invested in the missionary work of Paul. Every believer has a part to play in sharing the wonderful message of Jesus Christ. We all have the responsibility to go and send. Perhaps the modern Church has missed this. One does not automatically release me from the other. Several of my close friends serve in missions around the world. I have yet to find one of them that, while serving overseas, does not financially give so that others might go. They are quite literally going and sending.

This fact stands before you. When you approach Scripture through the honest lens of missions, you will have to ask yourself this question; will I go, send, or both? Both is always the correct answer.

To all our KMN Family:

What an honor it has been to serve here at the Network level that last 16 years. There have been so many memories, so many times of laughter, so many times of tears, and so many friendships forged over those years. Little did we know in the beginning the opportunities that would come our way.

There were opportunities to build relationships in ministry.

When we started with Youth Alive, many of you jumped on board and helped us launch out, dreaming of reaching students with the Hope of this world. We were young, full of vision and passion to see people encounter a life changing, hope giving Savior. Many of you gave us the opportunity to dream, share, and connect that vision to reality in your communities.

During this season we have enjoyed those who have labored with us during events, the late-night Manna Hut conversations, meals after a Sunday morning service, phone calls, and all the other little things that have forged those friendships. The KYM and KMN Family is simply the best. As I have crisscrossed this state, I have grown to love Kentucky deeply, mainly because of the relationships I have built with people like you.

There were opportunities for our family.

When we started Youth Alive, our babies were babies. Chase was almost 2, Eli was 3, and Bryce was 6. Now, Bryce is married and in graduate school, Eli is a junior in college and engaged, and Chase is 18, graduating and moving away for college soon. My kids grew up in Kentucky Youth Ministries. Words fail to articulate the impact Kentucky Youth Ministries and Camp Crestwood have had on my kids' lives and their spiritual formation. Many of you and your kids have been a part of that process and impact. I am forever grateful to you and to Him.

There were opportunities to experience Him.

Successes, wins, and losses fail in comparison to the moments with Him. This journey, this season, has never been about me but always about Him. The late-night altar times, the encounters with Him, the lives changed, and the basking in His Goodness far outweigh any challenge, obstacle, or exhaustion we may have endured. Often, I watched the Holy Spirit move in the lives of students and leaders, weeping in His presence as they supernaturally experienced Him. I observed the moments He was forever changing the trajectory of an individual's destiny and it was unbelievably humbling. To experience a small part of the harvest of other leaders' toil in the field has been life-giving over and over. I am forever grateful for the last 16 years of His goodness on my life and those around me.

I'm a product of KYM and KMN. As a teen, as a college student, as a youth pastor, KYMKMN has had a direct impact on my salvation, my calling, my marriage, and my family. Though my stewardship of this moment is ending, it is not goodbye, because I'll see you around. We are still members of the Kentucky Ministry Network and forever a part of the KYM Family.

Truly Blessed,
Rodney Goodlett

A bible dit, “Allez, faites de toutes les nations des disciples, les baptisant au nom du Père, du Fils et du Saint-Esprit” (Matthieu 28:19), c’est la grande commission, c’est-à-dire l’ordre qui nous a été donné en tant que Chrétien. Cette responsabilité ne concerne pas simplement les évangélistes, pasteurs ou encore les missionnaires, car tous sommes appelés à œuvrer dans le ministère et cet appel commence à partir de la maison, et s’étend au travail, bref dans notre environnement.

Nous devons en tous nous impliquer dans ce service en supportant nos missionnaires qui sont en dehors de nos villes, pays, il est important de savoir que Dieu ne nous a pas simplement permis de venir dans ce pays pour en réjouir et prospérer socialement, mais aussi d’être impliqué dans le service de “faire des disciples.”

The Bible says, “Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit” (Matthew 28:19). This is the Great Commission, that is to say, the order given to us as Christians. This responsibility does not simply concern evangelists, pastors, or even missionaries, because all are called to work in the ministry. This call begins at home and extends to work, in short, to our environment.

We must all get involved in this service by supporting our missionaries who are outside our cities and countries. It is important to know that God has not only allowed us to come to this country to enjoy and prosper socially but also to be involved in the service of “making disciples.”

La Biblia dice, “Por tanto, id, y haced discípulos a todas las naciones, bautizándolos en el nombre del Padre, y del Hijo, y del Espíritu Santo,” (Mateo 28:19). Esta es la Gran Comisión, es decir, el mandato que se nos da como cristianos. Esta responsabilidad no concierne simplemente a los evangelistas, pastores o incluso misioneros, porque todos están llamados a trabajar en el ministerio. Esta llamada comienza en casa y se extiende al trabajo, en definitiva, a nuestro alrededor.

Todos debemos involucrarnos en este servicio apoyando a nuestros misioneros que están fuera de nuestras ciudades y países. Es importante saber que Dios no solo nos ha permitido venir a este país para disfrutar y prosperar socialmente, sino también para participar en el servicio de “hacer discípulos.”
